

SETTING THE PARTY OFF AT MIXMAG X MAGNUM BY TROJAN'S GOLD SESSIONS

Magnum by Trojan teamed up with Mixmag to showcase two of London's finest rappers, Unknown T and Jelani Blackman. The event, titled Gold Sessions, celebrated the launch of Magnum by Trojan, Trojan's Large Size, gold-wrapped condoms.

The event was held on the 19th of October and hosted and presented by Jonah Francis West, one half of Jonah & Stan – the directing and hosting comedy duo who have worked with Palace, Skepta, Kurupt FM and a host of others.

This year Jelani has popped up all over Europe and performed his debut at Glastonbury. Collaborating with the likes of Gorillaz, Brian Eno, Burna Boy and Wolf Alice, Jelani has the ability to melt his vocals into multiple genres, while his bars span topics such as racism and systemic inequality to having fun with your mates on a night out.

Drill rapper Unknown T has become a mainstay within the genre. His debut track 'Homerton B' became the first drill song to be certified silver in the UK – transforming him into a pioneering powerhouse within the scene. He's recently made waves in the fashion world, being tapped for collaboration with streetwear brand PLACES+FACES.

The footage of streams from this event can be found on Mixmag channels.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pAQLX4_FRM4